

INFLITE THE JET CENTRE

Licensed Corporate Engineer

Duties

- Overall control of projects as outlined by the Corporate Hangar Superintendent.
- Carry out final release of aircraft from maintenance. (Qualifications dependant)
- Co-ordination of all aircraft zones as and when requested
- Liaison with the relevant departments for job progression.
- Ensuring spares control and return to stock throughout the aircraft input.
- Liaisons with the commercial department to ensure timescales are met.
- Working within the scope of the company Part 145 approval
- Control of labour within an aircraft as and when requested
- Responsible for cost control for both spares and labour as and when requested
- Responsible for general husbandry for the Hangar and aircraft
- Responsible for inspection tasks as detailed by the Aircraft Supervisor
- Certification of scheduled inspections
- Spares recording on job cards
- Co-ordination and liaison between relevant departments and the engineer in charge of the aircraft
- Responsible for all tasks as required to carry out duties.
- Communicating the progress of inputs/projects on a daily basis by written reports and daily meetings as and when requested
- Any other duties as may be required by the Corporate Base Maintenance Manager/Hangar Superintendents.
- Any other duties as may from time to time be required by the Managing Director and or the Accountable Manager.
 - B1/B2 Licences (Licenced Engineers only)
 - Embraer Legacy Type Rating Advantageous
 - Prepared to travel at short notice both UK and Overseas
 - Flexible Attitude towards working hours
 - High Level of Customer Services
 - Ability to ensure all work remains within the Company's MOE and to the required Safety and Quality Standards
 - Capable of working on own initiative and owning the problem until completion.
 - Where required type training courses will be provided for licensed applicants

I have and understand my job description.

Name..... Signature.....Date.....